A FOUNDRY COMPANY.

TWO CLAIMANTS FOR $300.

Judgment was given in the case yesterday afternoon in which Mr. Justice Gompertz was asked to decide which of two claimants was the rightful owner of money handed to the defendant in the action.

Mr. McCallum addressing His Honour said that although the verbal evidence was very conflicting the documentary evidence was not. He asked His Honour to accept the first receipt as a genuine one; there was nothing to prove the contrary. He submitted Wong Chan Ping was only an agent for a disclosed principal and such agent's authority was very limited.
He paid the money over and there finished. He would therefore ask for the plaintiff to be non-suited.

His Honour intimated that if he was in agreement with Mr.
McCallum he could give judgment for the plaintiff but would not non-suit the plaintiff.

Mr. Lyson said the issue was whether the money came from the plaintiff or the other man, the second witness. A fictitious name had been used: it was admitted to be invented. The second witness said that he used it because it was the first that came into his head whereas the other said it had been the name of a firm he was connected with in Canton and so he used it again. That was the more probable.

His Honour gave judgment for the defendant with costs in the first case. In the second he gave judgment for the plaintiff for $300 against Ho Tui-tung with costs, $300 paid into court to be taken by plaintiff in part satisfaction of the judgment. He made no order against Wong Chan-tung.

THE ABERDEEN MURDER.

DEFENDANT COMMITTED.

The hearing of the Aberdeen murder case was concluded before Mr. H. E. Lindsay at the Central Magistrate's yesterday afternoon.
Defendant who was not legally represented made a statement from the dock prior to being committed for trial at the Criminal Sessions.
Mr. J. H. S. Nicholl, assistant crown solicitor prosecuted.

Further evidence called by the Crown was to the effect that when deceased brought her sumpun alongside that of her sister-in-law
the latter in consequence of a report took the deceased to the police station. Whilst they were sitting on the verandah just outside the charge room, defendant was taken to the station and deceased at once pointing at him said that he took part in the stabbing. The defendant was arrested by two Chinese constables hanging on to the rudder of a sumpun in the harbour.

Defendant's statement was that he went together with a friend on a sumpun to a hill side at the southern part of the harbour. On their way their boat came in collision with another and a fight took place during which he was knocked overboard and later arrested by the constables.

Defendant was committed to the Criminal Sessions.

ENGLISH TAILORS SUPREME.

"England clothes the world," said Mr. F. C. Chappell, the retiring president, at the annual conference at Blackpool of the National Federation of Merchant
Tailors. Tailoring, said Mr.
Chappell, was an art and a craft as well as a manufacturing business, and a tailor was as much worthy of the result of his work as any other successful man who created articles of value. He claimed that the

THE BIG FIGHT.

"MATTY" SMITH HERE.

Hongkong boxing enthusiasts are looking forward with keen interest to the big fight at the Theatre Royal on November 15th, between "Matty" Smith and Jim Cartledge for the Lightweight Championship of the Colony.

"Matty" Smith, accompanied by Knute Hansen, the heavyweight, arrived in the Colony yesterday on the Empress of Canada. Both men were looking exceedingly fit and well, and Smith, when interviewed by a representative of the S. C. M. Post, expressed his pleasure at being given the opportunity to meet Cartledge and trusted that the forthcoming exhibition would give pleasure to all supporters of the noble art here. This is his first appearance in Hongkong, and he is immediately going into serious training, under charge of Staff Sgt. Hunt, who has arranged with several clever little boxers of the Surrey's, including Pooley, Major and Wareham, as sparring partners.

Why "Matty" Lost.

Discussing the recent fight in Shanghai, when Smith was knocked out by Rufe Cannon, Knute Hansen attributed "Matty's" defeat to the fact that under a penalty of $100 to make 128 lbs, he was forced down by means of special diet from 136 lbs to just slightly below the required weight, within a week.
Naturally this left him in a very weak condition.

The lightweight limit for the fight with Cartledge is 136 lbs, and Knute Hansen expressed the opinion that when "Matty" enters the ring for the first time in Hongkong, he will be in a far stronger condition than when he appeared at Shanghai. "He will have two weeks hard training and can easily make the weight," he added.
"There will be no special dieting or anything like that to trouble him this time. I am certain that he will make a good impression among the boxing people here."

Knute Hansen was anxious to deny the statement that he interfered with the referee in the fight at Shanghai, as alleged in a cable to the S. C. M. Post. He did not put his hand on the referee. Pandemonium reigned and with others he entered the ring, but did not interfere in any way with the fight or the officials.

Going to England.

"Matty" Smith told our representative that after his fight with Cartledge, Hansen and himself were going on to England by way of Singapore. They hoped to arrange several fights, Hansen being especially anxious to meet Bloomfield.

"Matty" has fought on several occasions in Shanghai, once against Chadwick, who held the lightweight championship of Hongkong. The result was a draw. He has met Billy Tingle twice, once over 15 pounds ending in a draw, and in the other he knocked out Tingle in five rounds. This was only three months before he was defeated by Cannon.

Mr. Brock, the Manager of the Hongkong Boxing Association, who met Smith and Hansen on their arrival, told our representative that the Articles will be signed on Friday afternoon. The fight will be for the Lightweight Championship of the Colony and will be under National Sporting Club rules. The purse is $1,000, three quarters of which will go to the winner and one quarter to the loser.

English tailors were supreme in their calling. They had attracted millions of foreign money to this country every year. It was well for all British tailors to remember that clothes made in England still led the world's fashion.

EX-ACTIVE SERVICE MEN'S ASSOCIATION.

THE YEAR'S ACTIVITIES.

The report of the Committee to be presented to the third annual meeting of the Ex-Active Service Men's Association, to be held on Friday evening, is as follows:

We believe you will agree that the Balance Sheet reveals a very satisfactory year's transactions. Our gross turnover, including subscriptions and fees was approximately $30,000. Our trading profit from all sources including bar, refreshments and billiards was over $8,000. Of this profit, over $3,000 was spent on Easama Beach, and about $7,000 on relief. Our bad and irrecoverable debts amount to $802.15 or slightly more than 2%. This is not so satisfactory as last year's Balance Sheet shows, but with a constantly moving membership such as ours, it is impossible to avoid a certain amount of loss under this heading.

During the year 125 new members joined the Association, and 37 members resigned; mostly on account of leaving the Colony. It is with deep regret that your Committee have to report the death of two members during the year—Messrs A. Hutchinson and B. S. Corke. This leaves our total membership at the end of the year at 641. We think you will agree that this is highly satisfactory.

During the year the following members of the Committee resigned: Messrs R. Batson, J. Murray, H. J. Timperley, A. S. Hersey, and E. S. Carter; and the following were appointed to the General Committee: Messrs S. C. Feltman, J. S. Beach, H. H. Rose, T. T. Laurenceon and R. S. Moore. We very much regret that owing to their leaving the Colony the Association is being deprived of the assistance of several gentlemen who were instrumental in inaugurating this Association and who devoted a great deal of time and energy to the formation of the Association. In this respect we would particularly mention Messrs, E. H. Wilson, H. J. Timperley, and N. T. Mackintosh.

The Annual Dinner was held on Armistice Day, November 11th, at the Hongkong Hotel. There was a large attendance of members, all of whom appeared to thoroughly enjoy the function. At the dinner, and later at the Club Room, poppies were auctioned and the sum of $762 was raised in aid of St. Dunstan's Home for Blinded Soldiers Sailors.

The Pathing Beach.

During the year, Easama Beach has been very well patronised, and has been a source of pleasure and recreation to a large number of members and their friends. The launch made 61 actual bathing trips to the Beach and conveyed over 2,700 people. In addition, an Aquatic Carnival was held on the Beach, and a Moonlight Bathing Excursion, both of which were very well patronised and were highly successful, although the attendance at the Moonlight Bathing Excursion was somewhat affected by the weather. It was decided during the year to institute the practice of issuing tickets, at 50 cents each, to members for use by their friends, and this appears to have been much appreciated.

During the year, in accordance with the resolution passed at the last Annual Meeting, arrangements were made with Messrs. Linstead and Davis to act as our Treasurers. This arrangement has worked very satisfactorily.

During the year we terminated our tenancy of the Club premises under which we were sub-tenants, and entered into a direct tenancy with the owners of the property, taking the premises unfurnished. We were therefore forced to purchase furniture to replace that which we had previously used, and which was the property of the previous tenant.

We were again favoured with a further proof of Sir Paul Chater's interest in our Association by the receipt of a gift of a portrait of himself—a gift which was very highly appreciated.

An exhibition billiard match was held at the Club premises, during which Mr. H. W. Stevenson, the champion, demonstrated his skill with the cue at the expense of some of our members.

Sporting Activities.

The Association presented two small cups for competition at the Garrison Swimming Sports. These cups were to be known as the Easama Cups and were for competition amongst boys and girls or children of Ex-Active Service men.

The experiment of holding quarterly General Meetings, instituted at last year's General Meeting, was found in practice unsatisfactory, and so abandoned.

The Sweep on the Hongkong Derby run by the Association was very successful, and amounted to a considerably larger sum than last year's Sweep, the total number of tickets sold realising $12,100, and the holder of the winning ticket drew $4,000.

A number of bowls, cricket and billiard matches were held during the year, and proved very enjoyable, although the Association teams were not very successful.

The question for new Club premises is still under serious discussion, but owing to the high rents

FIRE IN CANTON.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT DESTROYED.

At about 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, a fire broke out in one of the buildings in the back street behind the Hui Chu theatre on the Bund, at Canton. Assisted by a strong northwest wind, the fire spread rapidly to the neighbouring buildings with the result that the flames were carried across the narrow strip of water to Dutch Folly, the small island opposite the Pearl Theatre, where the quarters of the Military Department was located. The buildings of the Military Department being chiefly constructed of wood, were entirely destroyed. Official documents of the Department were lost in the fire.

The fire originated from the careless burning of joss sticks and paper by a family occupying the flat on No. 2 of the street directly on top of the Man Leo laundry. The adult occupants of the flat were away from home leaving the house in the care of their children, who were helpless when the house took fire, and barely escaped with their lives.

The City fire brigade was out in full force and it was not until noon that the fire on the Bund was successfully put out. Nothing could be done to save the offices of the Military Department on account of the inaccessibility of the island. The bronze statue of Admiral Ching Ping-kwan escaped unharmed. Most of the trees on the island were also burned.

prevailing we have been unable to secure suitable rooms at a reasonable cost.

As stated earlier in this Report, our popular President has left the Colony, and we shall therefore unfortunately not have the benefit of his services during the coming year. This is a considerable blow to the Association, and we feel that it will be very difficult to replace him.

A considerable amount of relief work has been accomplished amongst destitute ex-active service men, both in the matter of providing board and lodging, outfit etc. and also assisting them to procure employment in Hongkong. In this connection, the thanks of the Association are due to many people in Hongkong in a position to employ labour who have given assistance in this matter.

We also wish to express our thanks to Messrs. Percy Smith, Seth and Fleming, the Hon. Auditors to the Association, for auditing the year's accounts; also to Messrs. Deacons for their services to the Association as Hon. Solicitors, and of which service we have rather extensively availed ourselves during the year.

"KEAN"

FEATURING

IVAN MOZUKIN AND NATHALIA LESIENKO

(THE WORLD'S MOST POPULAR SCREEN STARS)

A 9-REEL DRAMA OF EXCITING SCENES

There are few persons who haven't read and do not hold in sentimental regard Alex. Dumas' strongest masterwork KEAN known the world over. It is a powerfully dramatic tale relating the life and unhappy ending of Edmund Kean, whom the critics and public alike, hailed not only as Britain's foremost actor of that period, but as one of the greatest dramatic genius of all time. IT IS A PICTURE OF LOVE AND DESPAIR, OF DREAMS AND ASHES OF DREAMS. A PICTURE THAT WILL GRIP AND HOLD THE POIGNANT APPEAL WHICH WILL REACH DEEPLY INTO EVERY HUMAN HEART. IT IS A LIVING BREATHING DOCUMENT OF REAL LIFE. Mr. MOZUKIN Europe's greatest dramatic actor on the screen, assisted by an exceptionally talented cast, comprising N. LESIENKO & NIC. KOLINE is enacting a role of heavy dramatic exactions, and he succeeds in registering almost the entire range of emotions in a manner of such certainty that his work in KEAN touches probably the uppermost point of the dramatic attainment of his career.

IF YOU SUFFER AFTER

take two or three tablets of Bismarck Ma-nesia with a sip of water. This quickly, surely and safely neutralises the harmful acid, stops the food fermentation, and gives your stomach a chance to proceed with its work in a painless normal manner. Thousands of people know from their own experience that Bismarck Ma-nesia is the only thing that helps them—that it's the only thing that enables them to eat hearty meals of the good things they like without worrying about after effects. Bismarck Ma-nesia Tablets cost little at any chemist, and they are so sure in effect that that doctors and hospitals all over the world praise them and prescribe them. Bismarck Ma-nesia will rid you of all traces of stomach pain and weakness and will enable you to eat hearty meals of the things you like without fear of consequent discomfort.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR JOURNALISTS.

Travel in America and Term at University.

The English-Speaking Union in London and America is to put into operation a scheme for granting scholarships to English journalists, to be known as the "Walter Page Scholarships" in memory of the American Ambassador of that name.

Two scholarships will be offered each year, and will comprise a year's visit to America.

Already nearly half the required amount has been collected and it is thought that the first two young journalists may visit America in January next.

Successful candidates, who will be selected by a committee in London, will possibly be affiliated to an American newspaper for three months; they will travel for a certain part of the time, and may spend a term at one of the American universities.

Applications should be sent to the Secretary, English-Speaking Union, 1, St. James's Place, London, W.1.

HORSE GUARDS.

Much-Photographed Men.

"Who are the most-photographed men in London?" The expert answer is the mounted sentries at the Horse Guards.

They are "snapped" by amateurs two or three dozen times a day, and when the guard is changed a number of cameras come into action all at once. Everyone wants to photograph Trafalgar Square, the fountains, the Monument, and from a distance a small camera can get a very good picture, and the Horse Guards. Buckingham Palace comes next in order of popularity, and then the Tower Bridge from the bridge itself. There is no other bridge across the Thames so easy to photograph, and because of the difficulty very few amateurs attempt London Bridge or Waterloo Bridge. The Royal Exchange, the Mansion House, and the traffic there take fourth place, but the Bank of England is not considered an attractive subject.

Oddly enough, the Albert Memorial is very popular, though it is not easy to get a complete view, and visitors usually content themselves with doing the corners. Big Ben is another great favourite, and if he often comes out so much aslant that he looks a little drunk all the photographers' friends will understand that it was hard to keep him straight. Marble Arch pleases people who come to it from the park. People who photograph the Cenotaph do not hang about choosing the best view. They photograph it quickly and inconspicuously and pass on. —Manchester Guardian.

OPIUM PROHIBITION.

Hongkong has a very direct interest in the international conference which is soon to take place at Geneva on the subject of the opium and drug traffic, and this Colony can rest assured that its interests and viewpoint will be safeguarded and expressed by Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher, who is to attend as Hongkong's official representative. There was recently published by the Government the report of a special local Committee which sat to enquire into the question of what Hongkong could do to assist in the task of drug and opium eradication, and the main contention of that report was that Hongkong could do but little more than at present, owing, mainly, to the fact that poppy-growing in China is still indulged in and is on the increase. We published a summary of that report at the time and our readers will possibly remember the main arguments and conclusions. We refer to the subject again because we notice in an American contemporary an article on the forthcoming Geneva Conference, in which it is urged that America ought "to strike directly at the heart of the problem, by urging the limitation of the growing of the poppy."

The article is rather naive and the writer was one of those lucky men who was able to talk a lot about principle unhampered by a knowledge of the facts. He goes on to say: "As long as the poppy and other raw materials for drugs are grown, they'll be made into drugs. It wouldn't, by the way, be difficult to put on the brakes. The growing of raw materials for drugs is a highly organized industry. Opium farming is a common occupation in the Orient. Curbing murder is a problem strikingly similar to curbing the drug traffic. As long as pistols are manufactured and sold by mail to any one with the price, pistols will be used to kill. The quickest way to control anything is to abolish its existence. Stop making pistols and you stop murder by pistol. Stop growing opium, etc., except enough for legitimate medical purposes, and you stop the drug traffic. The tiger will bite as long as he has teeth. Why waste time trying to muzzle him?"

While no-one will quarrel with the logic of our friend's argument, the remedy is not quite the simple thing he makes out. There are, as all students of the opium question know, a host of reasons, facts and circumstances which make it impossible to stop poppy growing as one would stop water running by turning off a tap. It cannot be done. In China itself there is no competent authority to stop poppy growing and even if there were, and even if poppy growing in India and elsewhere were officially prohibited, is it to be thought that there would be no opium? Has prohibition eradicated all the liquor in America? No, and it never will. The problem of the drug traffic is a bigger one than our American friend seems to realise.

France and Russia.

The de jure recognition of Russia by France comes at a very interesting juncture, with the question of Britain's dealings with the Soviet forming a bone of contention that has meant a general election. As was to be expected, there is anything but unanimity in France over this acceptance of the Soviet into the fold, and there is voiced some strong criticism by those who predict a period of Russian intrigue and interference with domestic issues. That same criticism pertained in Britain, and the same solace was offered, as in France to-day, that before anything definite resulted there would have to be a conference between representatives of the two countries. That conference was held in London some two months ago, and the result was a most unsatisfactory treaty, which has lain at the bottom of the dispute between the Labour and Conservative and Liberal parties in Britain. Apparently the French Government is in for similar experiences. Incidentally, it is interesting to observe how the Russian Soviet Government is gradually being "recognised" by nations which only a few years ago were bitter antagonists of all that smacked in the least of Bolshevism. This new trend can be traced directly to the accession of the proletarian elements to positions of greater influence in the political government of the land. In the United States of America alone is the opposition still strong and unbroken, hence the recent banquet presented by Zinovieff to the American Secretary of State. And even after all these years it is difficult to decide which is following the wiser course, the old world or the new.

Ex-Servicemen's Assn.

The report of the Ex-Active Servicemen's Association, to be presented at the annual meeting to-morrow, discloses a year of progress and a new spirit of enthusiasm which many thought was lacking previously. That the "Easna" Club has become an institution within the three years of its existence here, no-one can deny, and it is well that the activities of the Association apart from the club should also be noted. The balance sheet and report disclose one big item in the work carried on by the committee—we refer to the sum of $7,000 expended on relief. This assistance is one of the chief, if not the most advertised, activities of the E.A.S.M.A., and many a former Serviceman has grateful memories of the help he has had at the hands of the local association, and the kindness with which his case has been investigated by the popular secretary. Of the sporting prowess of "Easna" during the past year it can be said that the club suffered, as some other clubs do, from having members who owe allegiance to rival institutions as well, for among the best exponents of athletic games in the Colony are many ex-active service men. As the report indicates, the club has sought continually for a new place, where there could be a ground of its own, so that outdoor games could be fostered, but the very high rents for land and premises within easy access of town have proved prohibitive. We do not know how much of the land at King's Park, Kowloon, has been reserved for other clubs, but it occurs to us that a portion might be set aside for "Easna," which, if a baby in years, is nevertheless already the rallying point for over six hundred of the Colony's young men.

There was a clean bill of health in the Colony yesterday.

A case due for hearing at the Summary Court this morning was adjourned at the request of Mr. C. A. S. Russ, who this morning received the gift of a son and heir.

Among the passengers leaving for Shanghai this morning by the s.s. President Grant were Mr. H. P. White, Mr. L. Dunbar, Mr. Paul Lander, Mr. H. Seth and Mr. D. W. Goodfellow.

There will be a Cinematograph Display for Children at the Helena May Institute to-morrow, Friday, Oct. 31st, at 5.00. Tickets, 50 cents each. Family ticket for three people, $1.00.—Add.

The diamond pin reported by Mr. J. G. Shaw as having been stolen from his residence, at No. 18, Peak Road, has been found inside the house, according to a notification to the Police yesterday.

Report was made to the Harbour Office, to-day, of a fire in the No. 1 hold of the s.s. Ying Chow, while en route to Hongkong from Swatow. The fire was quickly extinguished by the crew and little damage is reported.

A Chinese was taken to the Government Civil Hospital in an unconscious condition yesterday, suffering from injuries he sustained when he attempted to alight from a tramcar whilst it was in motion in Des Voeux Road West.

The Hongkong and Kowloon Taxicab Company is transferring its showroom from the A. P. C. Building to its old premises, the Exile Garage, Des Voeux Road Central. The Japanese firm of Morinaga is taking over the A. P. C. showroom.

A motor driver was fined $25 by Mr. E. W. Hamilton, at the Kowloon Magistracy, this morning, for giving a bribe of $5 to Sergeant Hallam. Defendant pleaded guilty but said that he had already been passed as a driver by the Sergeant.

The Tung Ah Knitting Factory sustained a somewhat heavy loss when burglars broke into the premises the night before last. Some of the machinery was dismantled and carried away by the intruders; whilst a large number of singlets were also stolen. The loss amounted to nearly $2,000.

A novel sight was to be seen in town just after nine o'clock this morning. The funeral of a wealthy Chinese was taking place and a whole fleet of taxicabs formed part of the procession. Over twenty cabs were engaged, each being filled with mourners and having wreaths on the bonnet and top.

The wife of the laborer whose body was discovered by workmen lying in the nullah near the No. 4 Railway bridge, was discharged by Mr. E. W. Hamilton, at the Kowloon Magistracy, this morning, when Inspector Murphy informed the Bench that he had been instructed to offer no evidence. Mr. R. E. A. Webster appeared for the defence.

The two unemployed Chinese who pleaded guilty at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday to stealing property valued at $500 from No. 8, Pitt Street, Yaumatei, were each sentenced to-day to five months' hard labour. A third defendant, charged with receiving, received a similar sentence, whilst a fourth, also charged with receiving, was discharged owing to lack of evidence.

A surprise boarding party, organized by the Police, resulted in the seizure of 327 bottles of Chinese wine and 6,700 cigarettes on the Netherlands Harbour Works Company's lighter yesterday, and on a smaller boat which was moored nearby. No arrests have been made, and it is understood that an application will be made for the forfeiture of the goods on the ground that duty has not been paid on them.

INTERPORT CRICKET.

YESTERDAY'S TRIAL MATCH.

The Interport cricket trial match yesterday afternoon was interesting, and several players showed more of their true form.

Wood's eleven compiled 165 and Pearce's team 147 for 8. In the former side, Rev. Quick knocked up a fine 45, and Lyal, Ramsay, Owen Hughes and Holdman played well. Bowker took 3 wickets for 26 runs in 12 overs, two of which were maidens, so it will be seen with what respect he was treated. Hargreaves also did well with the ball. The same can be said of Lyal's and Balhatchet's trundling for the opposite eleven, the former taking 2 for 9 in 6 overs (2 maidens) and the latter capturing one wicket in two overs during which not a single run was scored. More made a bright 36 in this innings, and Pondered carried his bat for 24. Pearce scored a stylish 23.

Detailed scores were as follows:

MANY SOLICITORS.

INTERESTING CASE AT KOWLOON.

A case, which Mr. E. W. Hamilton described as interesting almost all the legal fraternity in Hongkong, came up at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning, when Mr. D. H. Blake appeared to prosecute a charge of larceny of 15 piculs and 45 cetties of Cassia oil, the property of Botelho Bros., proffered against the masters of two junks.

His worship told Mr. Blake that Mr. Armstrong had telephoned him about the case but had not mentioned what part he was taking.

Mr. Blake replied that he had been informed that Mr. d'Almada was also an interested party, appearing for the second defendant. He also understood that Messrs. Lo & Lo were instructed to defend the first defendant.

Mr. R. E. A. Webster, who entered the Court at that moment, was asked if he was also interested in the case, but he replied in the negative.

At the outset, Mr. Blake asked leave to amend the charge to "one of larceny of nine piculs and 45 cetties and also to bring a further charge of conspiracy to steal 47 piculs."

His Worship granted the application, and adjourned the case till Thursday next, Mr. Blake mentioning that it would go to the Sessions.

Mr. Armstrong later appeared in Court and informed the Magistrate that he was defending the first defendant. In reply to a question he said that he did not think Messrs. Lo and Lo were appearing for the first defendant.

AIR MAIL.

POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS HERE.

An announcement was made by Mr. M. J. Braen, Postmaster General, to-day, to the effect that the stamps of the Colony would be acceptable for the United States Trans-continental Air Mail Service between San Francisco and New York after the 15th of November.

The air mail rates are additional to the regular postage rates and will be levied according to zones served. Letters intended for the air mail transmission should be marked "U.S. Air Mail" in red ink or with a rubber stamp and handed over the receiving counter.

This announcement comes as a culmination of a series of negotiations between the two countries and aids materially in making the use of the air mail service in the States less complicated for Hongkong users.

CANTON NEWS.

WU HON-MIN IN HONGKONG.

Our Canton correspondent reports that the Government has ordered an investigation to be made into the ownership of the houses used as branch headquarters by the Volunteer Corps, with a view to their confiscation.

We are informed that General Wu Hon-min, the Civil Governor of Canton, is in the Colony, being engaged in a conference with "Little Hsu." He is reported to have extended an invitation from Dr. Sun Yat-sen for the fugitive Chekiang warlord to go up to Canton.

TRUST!

Trust! A beautiful word, yet (like all that is lovely in life) it is liable to be abused and mis-used.

To trust indicates the helpless relying upon the strong, the faith of one in the ability of another to protect and to help. There is a trust which is so elementary that it is founded upon unconsciousness. The infant trusts itself to its mother with perfect surrender. But let a stranger pick up the child and, young though it be, its trust is disturbed; you will see the little face pucker, and there will probably be a lusty cry.

The little ones, growing up like flowers, trust their parents for provision. What do they reckon of the anxieties of father and mother to keep the home going, to provide the clothes and the necessities? No; nor would we wish that perfect trust to be marred by such cares. Let the little ones rejoice while they are young, for all too swiftly they will grow up into days of responsibility.

Trust is the cement which binds love. Without it, love is a travesty of all that it should imply. The sinister opposite of trust is suspicion, the serpent which writhes into the Garden of Love's Eden and destroys happiness. To take away trust by a foolish or deliberate action, is to kill something beautiful in life. There are other murderers besides those who commit the supreme crime. What more tragic, more fraught with possibilities of sorrow, than the act of the husband who shatters the trust of the loving wife, or that, of the wife who sows seeds of suspicion in the heart of the man who has loved her well!

Trust is found upon confidence. Not only in the sacred relationships of our human existence, but in the business dealings of the community, trust is necessary. Credit is a form of trust. No matter how careful our system of trade inquiries, there is an element of trust necessary in commercial life. If it is destroyed, the very foundations of business integrity are moved.

You may carry on the same thought with regard to the intercourse between nations. Unless there is trust there can be no harmonious relationship. Modern business requires not only confidence in the home circle of business, but international trust as well. Nations must have commercial reputation or the foreign markets will be closed to them. I suppose there is not one of us, except the very youngest, but are in the position of being trusted by somebody. Perhaps a younger member of the family; an acquaintance; a business intimate; if you search your mind you will find somebody who trusts you. Then let this question be mentally answered: "How do I meet this trust?" Conscience will tell you.

I trust you. The perfect confession of Confidence! Like the delicate piece of porcelain, if broken it can never be mended without revealing the flaw.

CINEMA NOTES.

THE WORLD.

Alexandre Dumas' masterpiece "Kean" is being reproduced at the World Theatre. With the two greatest dramatic stars, Mozukin and Losienko, this splendid picture has gained very high appreciation.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.

In these days of sumptuous settings, a producer has to go far when he offers a picture for which he claims exceptional credit on account of its gorgeous "atmosphere." In "The Moth" which comes to the Queen's Theatre today, Selznick Pictures challenge anyone to name a picture in which the backgrounds excel in beauty and brilliance those presented in this offering. The story is taken from the popular novel of William Dana Decut entitled "The Moth." Norma Talmadge plays the title role and Eugene O'Brien is her leading man.

THE OPERA.

LAST NIGHT'S SUCCESS.

A large and appreciative audience was present at the Theatre Royal last night to hear the Italian Opera Company's presentation of "Faust." Round after round of rapturous applause proclaimed the fact that the presentation met with unqualified approval.

Sig. Emanuele Giletta, in the part of Faust, was easily the outstanding figure of the evening. His tenor voice possesses an unusual sweetness and his characterization was excellent.

Carlo Milocchi, with his rich, deep basso, made an excellent Mephistopheles. He completely filled the stage from the moment he stepped forth until he disappeared through the wings. His dramatic skill was at its height in the presentation.

Midle. Castellani won much praise and applause in her characterization of Marguerite. Her voice seemed peculiarly adapted to the part and her rendition of the Jewell song was flawless.

Much credit is due the orchestra. Their assistance to the vocalists was as noticeable as it was commendable.

To-night the company will present "Aida."

RECTOR CENTENARIAN.

The Rev. Christopher Cook, rector of Mambillad, Pontypool, and the oldest beneficed clergyman in the kingdom, has celebrated his 100th birthday. Mr. Cook was born in September 1824, and has held the living of Mambillad since 1852. His father served as a naval surgeon in the Battle of Trafalgar, and died at a great age; his son is vicar of Rowell of one, Llansillo, and is 75 years of age.

OBITUARY.

WELL-KNOWN NOVELIST.

New York, Oct. 29.
The death has occurred of Frances Hodgson Burnett—Reuter's American Service.

[Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, the well-known novelist and dramatist, was born in Manchester 75 years ago, and went with her parents to America when 16 years of age. She is most famous for her "Little Lord Fauntleroy," which she dramatized, and which brought her over £20,000.]

UNEARTHED RELICS.

Kent and the Romans.

In and around London there has been of late months a strong revival of interest in Roman remains in Kent. Holiday makers at Folkestone have heard and talked much of the excavations there. Near Sandwich, within the walls of Richborough Castle, the ancient Rutupia, the Society of Antiquaries of London have resumed their exploration for the third season. An elaborate system of baths has been found. There is reason to believe that these had been remodelled at least twice, the latest rebuilding being of a hasty and partial character; and beneath the lowest level of the baths is a complex of walls representing buildings of at least two earlier periods, the plan and object of which has not yet been fully determined. Small finds have been remarkable rather for the quality than for their quantity although several rubbish pits are being located and opened out which, it is hoped will yield a rich harvest.

Two fragments of a bronze statue of life size, probably of a Roman emperor in a cuirass, show the gilt covering in perfect preservation. This season's work continues to illustrate the importance of Richborough at the very close of the Roman period. The proportion of coins of Theodosius and his sons found within the fort is markedly greater than on any other site yet excavated in this country, and may serve as an archaeological commentary on the period when the remaining units of the Roman army of occupation were being gradually concentrated at the Channel ports, preparatory to the final evacuation of the country. The archaeological history of Richborough itself begins with the Claudian invasion of A.D. 42. From this date to the reign of Honorius, the port occupied an important and sometimes a commanding position in the history of the Roman administration of Britain.

STOMACH TROUBLES.

Their Causes and Tonic Remedy.

Lots of people abuse their stomach. They eat too much, use indigestible food, many of them swallow quantities of alcohol thinking that this will help digestion.

Nothing could be more stupid and wrong. Alcohol does not help the stomach; on the contrary it makes digestion more difficult, a fact which is recognised now by scientists and doctors all over the world. The only right way to remedy matters is to begin to treat the stomach properly by care as to diet and by giving it fresh strength by means of tonic treatment, the treatment which is best supplied by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

If you have indigestion, gas on the stomach, sour stomach, belching or heartburn, if your appetite is poor or you cannot eat substantial nourishing food without distress, just give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a short trial and you will be surprised how quickly improvement will set in. The first thing noticeable usually is an increased desire for food, you

A thousand feet in the air! This is Homer Miller of Canton, Ohio, a stunt flier. A minute after this picture was taken, while he was preparing to catch a rope dangling from a plane above, one of his lungs was punctured by the wing of his own ship.

A French court decreed that this costume is perfectly proper for street wear. Milo, Diana, actress, was arrested for appearing in the Versailles Gardens thus clad.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon is thinking about the presidential campaign as he sits on his front porch in Danville, Ill. These autumn days. And his mind goes back through the years to others even more bitter. But this time "Uncle Joe" is out of the fight.

Militarism isn't dead in Germany, by any means. And here's proof of it. It shows sailors on board the battleship Hanover, lying at anchor at Swinemünde, lined up for inspection. Defence Minister Gessler (in civilian attire) and Admiral Behnke are seen inspecting them.

$100 DOLLARS GIVEN AWAY.

"Telegraph" Football Competition.

We will give a prize of $100 to the reader who sends in the correct goal scores of three Hongkong Football League matches to be played on Saturday next, November 1st., as detailed in the coupon to be found below.

RULES OF COMPETITION.

- All forecasts must be written on coupons sent from "The Hongkong Telegraph." The name and address of the entrant to be plainly printed in block letters in ink.
- Any number of attempts may be sent in, but a separate coupon must be used for each attempt.
- The Prize of $100 will be awarded to the competitor who gives the correct goal scores of the three matches. In the event of more than one competitor sending in a correct forecast, then the Prize will be divided equally between those competitors. No use competitor shall be entitled to more than one share of the prize.
- Should no competitor send in three correct forecasts, the prize will be awarded to the competitor or competitors who succeed in giving the correct goal scores in any two matches. No prize will be given if only one match is correctly forecasted—in that event, the $50 will be added to the following week's prize, thereby doubling the amount to be competed for.
- All coupons must be received at the "Telegraph" office not later than 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, November 1st. Coupons received after that time will be disqualified.
- No responsibility for loss or non-delivery of any coupon. The Editor's decision must be final. No correspondence or interview will be entered into concerning this competition.
- Any match given below which, through any cause whatever, is not played to a finish will not be counted.
- No members of the "Telegraph" staff will be permitted to take part in the competition.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

THE ELECTIONS.

London, Oct. 29.

An especially noteworthy feature of the closing of the campaign is the absence of the customary attempts to forecast results. The Conservatives alone are hopeful of getting a clear majority, but admit that this depends on a larger proportion of voters going to the poll than last year.

Mr. Baldwin's final appeal exhorts the electors to vote Conservative, "at this great crisis of our history."

The Liberals profess confidence of retaining balance of power in the new Parliament.

The Labourites voice expectations of a sweeping victory, but nowhere boast anticipation of a clear mandate.

The results of approximately 225 constituencies will be published to-night and will be heard in comfort by millions all over the country, thanks to elaborate arrangements. Theatres, Music halls and restaurants will remain open to the early hours of the morning and railways are running special night services. The results will also be wirelessly broadcast until one in the morning.—Reuter.

FRANCE'S RECOGNITION OF RUSSIA.

Paris, Oct. 29.

The French note to Russia conveying recognition stipulates that recognition will in nowise infringe any undertaking entered into by France. It also expressly reserves the rights of the French Government and citizens respecting the obligations of former Russian regimes, and finally insists on mutual non-interference in the other's internal affairs.

The Soviet Government's reply expresses the hope that all questions mentioned in the French note will be satisfactorily settled in the forthcoming negotiations. It welcomes the French declaration regarding internal non-interference.—Reuter.

Paris, Oct. 29.

While the Left newspapers applaud the recognition of Russia, the opposition papers accept the fact with resignation and derive comfort from the belief that real recognition is only possible after a Franco-Russian conference, presumably in January has settled outstanding questions, especially those of debts. They declare that the Anglo-Soviet negotiations typify the difficulties ahead.

Figaro voices the extremist view, declaring that France is a vanquished state in the eyes of Moscow, and that "under the shelter of the red flag and cover of diplomatic immunity, a few hundred determined knaves will establish a revolutionary propaganda centre."—Reuter.

HINDUS AND MOSLEMS.

Delhi, Oct. 29.

Lord Reading has refused Gandhi permission to visit Kohat whither he intended to proceed with Moslem friends in order to restore neighbourly relation between Hindus and Moslems.—Reuter.

FENTIENG TROOPS OCCUPY LANCHOW.

Tokyo, Oct. 29.

A communique from Mukden claims the complete occupation of Lanchow on the afternoon of the 28th. The Chihli forces are retreating and the surrender of a large portion of them is said to be imminent. The foregoing has been confirmed by semi-official despatches to Tokyo which add that the defeated troops include the 14th, 26th and 39th brigades.—Reuter.

£64 PAID FOR £3 10s. "Pay no more" was the Walsall magistrate's advice to a labourer's wife who alleged she had paid 12s. 8d. interest weekly for five years to a woman neighbour on a loan of £3 10s. The Justice's Clerk: "That is £160. The neighbour denied the alleged rate. She admitted charging eightpence weekly on another loan of four shillings.

DIODENES OUTDONE. Diogenes had at least a tub into which to retire in the event of rain; but a man and his wife evicted from their cottage at Drewsteignton, Devon, have been living out of doors and sleeping on two easy chairs at night. They refused to go to the workhouse, saying they could manage if it quartered, when they had been promised a house.
